DEDICATION

MR. FREDERICK REMINGTON FURLONG

In grateful appreciation for all that he has done for Coeymans High School, we respectfully dedicate this year book to MR. FREDERICK REMINGTON FURLONG, our principal.

To all of the students, his friendship is highly valued. As teacher, principal and friend, he has ever striven to guide, encourage and counsel us in all matters. Mr. Furlong may always be depended upon to cooperate whole-heartedly with the students in all their undertakings.

We, the editors of the year book, wish to express our sincere thanks to Mr. Furlong for all that he has done in the past for our school. It is our hope that he, our principal, counselor and friend, will remain at Coeymans for many years to come.

MR. J. K. MENEELY, President of Board

MR. PERRY R. SHEAR, Vice President Mr. CLARE A. ROBBIN, Clerk

MR. HOWARD S. YOUMANS MR. ROBERT V. B. BLAISDELL

We are deeply indebted to our Board of Education for the excellent school program they allow us to enjoy.

During the past few years, they have been instrumental in completely modernizing our building, constructing a swimming pool and playground in the rear of the school, installing a central sound system and installating new floors throughout the building.

This year, their contribution to the educational plans of the students is a completely equipped Home Making Center. This Center comprises four rooms in the front of the building; a reception room, sewing center, dining and discussion room and a completely equipped kitchen.

Senior Class History

Six small eager children entered the first grade in Coeymans High School in 1927. As they moved swiftly from grade to grade, new students joined their classes. Some of their classmates were left sadly along the way.

Eleven of our present Senior Class were graduated from the eighth grade in Coeymans High in 1935.

The following fall our membership was greatly increased when many new friends entered our class as Freshmen. We promptly elected James Wilsey President of our class. Frank Everingham was Vice-President, and Lorraine Swarthout, Secretary-Treasurer. Our first activity as a group of high school students was our Christmas Dance.

Our Senior year found us both stately and eager. James Wilsey is our President; Joseph Miller, Vice-President; Hilda Gimlick, Secretary and Winifred Hammond, Treasurer. Our first activities were a cafeteria and the sale of magazines and pencils. After the Senior Carnival in the fall, we discussed plans for the Senior Ball, the social high-light of the season. It has been a year of work and happiness. Our labor was generously rewarded by an enjoyable trip to New York.

It is with sadness in our hearts and with heart-felt wishes of good luck to the under-classmen, that we leave dear Coeymans High. We sincerely hope that it will not forget us.

SCHOOL 1939

Junior Class

In 1928, four members of the present Junior Class began school together at Coeymans. The rest have come later, the majority as Freshman.

In our Freshmen year, Eugene Mulligan was President; John Mangini, Vice-President; Ann Tracey, Treasurer and Eleanor Swarthout, Secretary. Audrey Tracey was our Student Council Representative. Our only activity was the annual Christmas Dance. We also purchased our class banner.

Last year, we retained the same class officers. Audrey Tracey was again our Student Council Representative. We held the annual May Dance which was a great success.

This year, the following class officers were elected: President, Eugene Mulligan; Vice-president; Giles Wagoner; Secretary, Jane Van Kempen and Treasurer, Carl Tiberia. Our activities have been numerous. We had a cafeteria, sold hot dogs at football games, sponsored a benefit movie, gave a pancake supper and sponsored the anuual Junior Prom. We also purchased our class rings this year.

Sophomore Class

Last year as Freshmen, we had the honor of being one of the largest classes ever to be registered at Coeymans High School.

After we had settled down and become acquainted, we held class elections resulting in the choice of the following class officers: Vernon Kendall, President; Harold Acker, Vice-President; Vincent Lyons, Secretary and Frank La Porte, Treasurer. Our only activity during our Freshman year was the annual Christmas Dance.

This year saw a change in class administration. Vincent Lyons was elected President; Vernon Kendall, Vice-President; Theresa Domanico, Secretary; and Dorothy Meyers, Treasurer. Our student council representative is Everett Barber.

The contributions to our Sophomore year were a Cafeteria and the annual May Dance. Both of these were outstanding successes.

Freshman

I am sure none of us will ever forget our first day at Coeymans High. Many new faces, teachers and students, some of which were to become close friends, were all present helping us to become acquainted.

Those chosen to head our class were Randall Carhart, President; June Southard, Vice-President; Elizabeth Giacomini, Secretary-Treasurer and Marion Miller, Student Council Representative.

This year we have the honor of being the largest Freshman Class in the history of Coeymans High School even surpassing the class of '41. We are all very proud of this.

Our outstanding event of the year was the annual Christmas Dance. This was a great success which was due to the help of our advisers, Miss Sawyer and Mr. Ray, and to the cooperation of the entire class.

The Crossroads

The eighth grade class of '39 will leave, this year, one of the happiest periods of their lives-grammar-schooldays. Thus far, it has not been very hard to follow, but from now on, we know that each year will bring new highways and byways.

We thank our teachers who have helped us to make ready by equipping us with the strong asset of knowledge which we shall use whenever possible on our journey.

This past year has been one of the happiest. Mr. Whiter is our home-room teacher. Our class officers are: President, William Wolfe; Vice-President, Myron Ray; Secretary, Irene Donar; Treasurer, Margaret Botts; Student Council Representative, Raymond Wilsey.

We stand at the crossroads of our lives. Which way we shall turn is, as yet, unknown.

The Struggle

Seven long, difficult years ago, a group of mischievous little pupils toddled into Miss Lewis' first grade room. The next year they shyly ventured into Miss Bryan's presence. The rolling along of the third year, showed their shyness disappearing. They were grown up now. No longer did the girls wear pigtails or the boys pull them. Miss Keddie was well pleased.

In our journey through the fourth grade, we traveled with Miss Hull over the "Lincoln Highway".

Still traveling we stopped at the fifth grade. At this point, we were forced to separate, much to our disappointment. Our spirits were brightened at the thought of producing a great play on March 25, 1937. The great event was accomplished, thanks to Miss Smith. Surely you remember the "Princess and the Swinherd".

We soon were acquainted with Miss Barnes and grew to like her very much. There was much disappointment in leaving her in June. I hope you miss us as much, Miss Barnes.

After graduating and going upstairs to the seventh grade, we felt quite sophisticated. One would never know seven short years could change a human being so greatly. We are settled quite comfortably in Miss Hammersley's room at the present.

I don't think our struggle to survive was so difficult, do you?

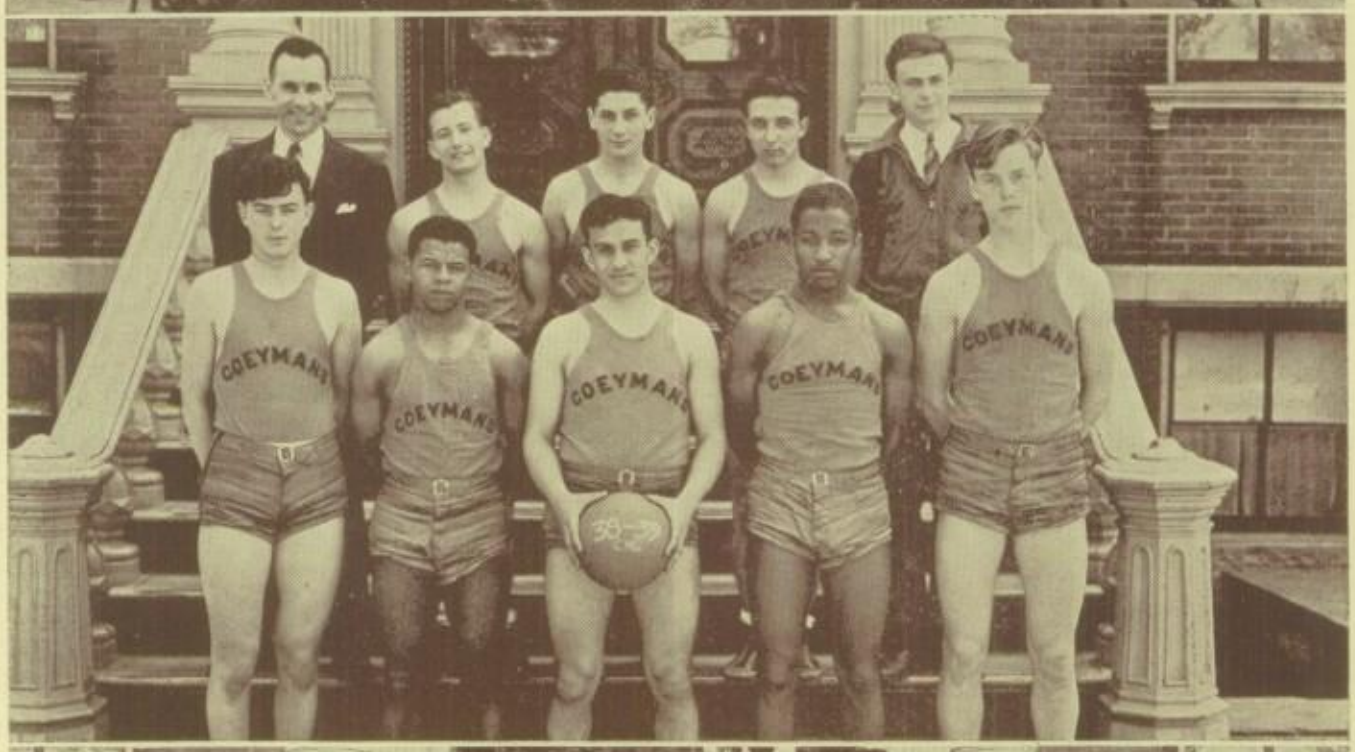
Student Council

This important student organization of Coeymans High School has made remarkable progress during the past year in clearing up its deficit. In the fall, we sold football buttons and sponsored a unique cafeteria. During the winter season, we sold basketball buttons and also held a successful benefit movie.

We were freed from the remainder of our debt through the student pictures taken early in February. Also, during the year, the council sponsored: The Utica Jubilee Singers, Carmelo Cascio, the well known blind pianist, and the Student Hand Book.

We wish to thank Mr. Ray, our faculty adviser, for his help in making this year a very successful one for the Student Council.

COEYMANS HIGH



SCHOOL 1939

Football

Last fall the game of six-man football was inaugurated in the Central Hudson Valley League. This was necessary because the few boys who reported for practice were not sufficient for eleven-man football.

The Coeymans Sextette, under the guidance of Coach Kunz, played an important role in this new game. Although we did not win the league, we won four out of the six league games and outscored our opponents one hundred four to forty-seven points.

We also gave the game a dramatic tinge by our open style of playing before enthusiastic and large crowds. Ideal weather and keen competition kept interest at a high pitch.

We wish to thank Mr. Kunz for his assistance and guidance.

Basketball

A sensational come-back with a continous string of victories after a poor showing in the beginning of the season is the record of the Coeymans High School basketball team of 1939.

By defeating Coxsackie in the last game of the season, Coeymans, created a three-way tie with Coxsackie and Castleton. Although we did not emerge champions, we won nine game during the season.

In April, the boys were awarded bronze basketballs for their excellent showing.

The students of Coeymans High have always been noted tor their sincere sportsmanship. We are happy to say that this enviable quality was shown by our basketball team many times during the season.

Baseball

A promising baseball season looks likely for the Coeymans' "nine" this year. There is a long list of candidates which includes a majority of last year's squad.

The league is divided into two divisions, northern and southern. This makes the divisions independent groups, so that each group winner will play a three-game series for the championship.

Coeymans is in the southern division and will compete with Ravena, Athens and Coxsackie.

Mr. Whiter is our very able coach.

COEYMANS HIGH

Girls' Athletics

The whole girls' athletic program has been rearranged on a new basis, seasoned with new vigor and interest.

In the fall and spring, Miss Eastman, our new archery instructor, had a large number of participants and completed a successful season

In all sports, tournament teams were organized in preference to interclass teams because better cooperation resulted. Many more girls came out this year for sports and playdays were organized to promote friendship and social contacts with other schools. Two new sports were offered this year — soccer in the fall and track in the spring.

The girls' athletic program culminated in the spring with the formation of the girls' athletic council. This group is composed of representative from each class organized for the purpose of setting a goal and suggesting objective toward which each girl may work both for herself and the common good of the school.

A Point system and Constitution were drawn up by the committee which is composed of Ann Turner, Chairman; Mary Clouse, Theresa Domanico, June Southard, Betty DeFlumer and Carmella Nunziato. The five following Senior girls were chosen as charter members. Ann Turner, Elizabeth Hotaling, Sylvia Augustine, Winifred Hammond and Angeline Conora. These Senior girls and committee of representatives initiated Junior Deputies late in the spring with election of officers immediately followig.

When one obtains 400 points, one must pass the approval of a pledge board; when one obtains 600 points, you receive a felt "C" and a seat on the deputy board; at 1000 points, one obtains a chenille "C" the highest award the organization offers.

One of the primary reasons of the organization has been to vary the program and to include every girl in Junior and Senior High School, whether she is interested in sports or not and in addition to stimulate school spirit.

Cheerleading

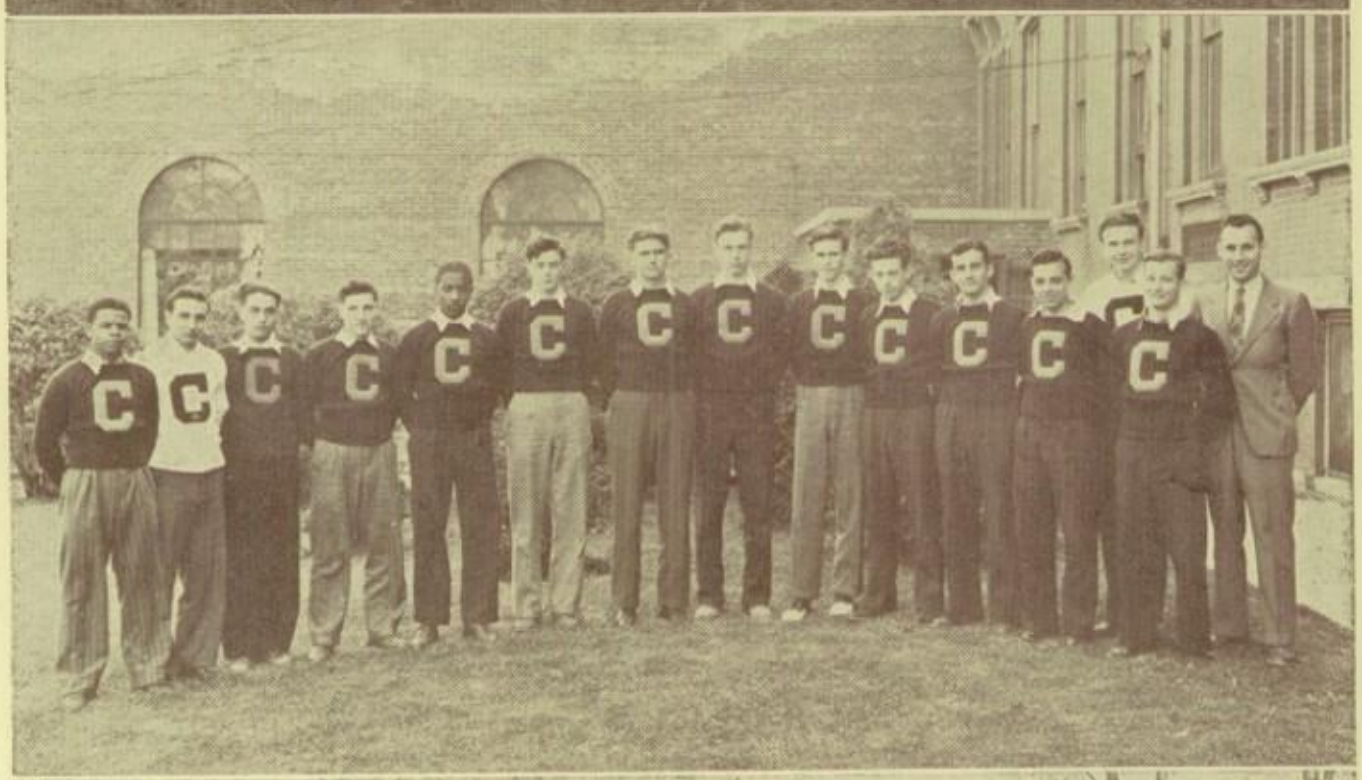
The cheerleaders should be given much credit for their untiring efforts in stimulating school spirit throughout the year.

Theresa Domanico and Ehtel While are the head cheerleaders for this year. Under their able direction, the thirty students worked diligently bringing into the Hudson Valley a new fad, jitterbug cheerleading.

A cheerleader must work at least two years before he is eligible for a letter. He must follow the constitution which is set by the members.

No other student organization requires as much skill and industry on the part of its members as does cheerleading. Those students who have made the grade are to be commended.

COEYMANS HIGH



SCHOOL 1939

Year Book Staff

The members of the staff of the Year Book of 1939 wish to express their thanks to all those who helped to make it a success. We have found Mr. Furlong and the entire staff very cooperative. Cooperation is always necessary for the success of any undertaking.

The subscription and advertising committees have worked diligently to put the year book on a sound financial basis.

The editors of the annual are Regina Cookingham, Editor-in-Chief, David Kelly, John Mangini, Dorothy Myers, Anne Miller, Raphael Mayone, Jane Niles, Stewart Stephany, Eleanor Swarthout, Carl Tiberia and Jane Van Kempen.

The chairman of the committees are: Advertising, Eugene Mulligan; Pictures, Arthur Cole; subscription, Robert Korn; Typist, Eleanor Swarthout.

The members of the staff sincerely hope that they have published a year book of the same high standards as those which have preceded it.

Varsity Club

The purpose of the Varsity Club as founded in 1937 is to improve athletics in our school, to make the members of our athletic teams not only better players but better sportsmen as well. Membership in this club is open to any boy who has received a letter in any sport.

The officers selected for the 1938-39 year are as follows: President, John Frangella; Vice-President, Carl Tiberia; Treasurer, Eugene Mulligan; and Secretary, Eugene Leigh.

As an incentive to achieve the high standards set by this club, sweaters are awarded each Moving Up Day to those Junior and Senior boys who have done the most for the school athletically and scholastically. This year, a benefit movie was held to raise money for these sweaters.

Echoes

The history of our school paper goes back to 1928 when students purchased the "Echoes" for $2.50 a subscription. The paper contained six pages and was published guarterly in Maryland.

In 1931 a change occured in the "Echoes". Instead of being printed, it was now mimeographed. The subscription price was lowered to $1.50.

The co-editors of the "Echoes" of 1938-39 are Ann Turner, Sylvia Augustine and Winifred Hammond. Each girl takes her turn at editing the paper. The faculty advisers of the school paper are Miss Cleland, Miss Matthews and Mrs. Meyers. Our paper now has a circulation of over two hundred, and sells for forty-five cents, a yearly subscription.

The student body is rightly proud of the "Echoes" and it is considered one of the foremost activities of the school.

COEYMANS HIGH

SCHOOL 1939

Band

Coeymans High School is very proud of its forty piece band. The band has progressed greatly this year and has taken part in a number of events.

Our band journeyed to Hudson this spring to take part in a contest in which it competed with many other high school bands from New York State. Although we did not have the good fortune of winning, our band received a very high rating.

On Moving Up Day, the members of the band were awarded activity pins.

We wish to thank Miss Sawyer and Mr. Poverelli, our directors, for all that they have done to make the past year a successful one for the band.

Senior Girls' Glee Club

Since music was first introduced as a formal course of study in Coeymans High School in 1936, interest in singing and instrumentation has grown rapidly. At present, there are six musical clubs. Prominent among these is the Senior Girls' Glee Club.

This organization is composed of Senior High School girls who meet twice weekly to sing and learn about music. For a year and a half, the Glee Club has been directed by Mis Muriel Sawyer, a graduate of Fine Arts, Boston University.

This year, a new system for the Glee Club has been inaugurated. The Club now meets twice a week during the fourth period, an arrangement which gives the girls more time to perfect each song and also allows each member a point per year toward graduation.

One of the highlights of the year comes each Moving Up Day. On that occasion, the girls receive pins which are paid for by the proceeds of a cafeteria.

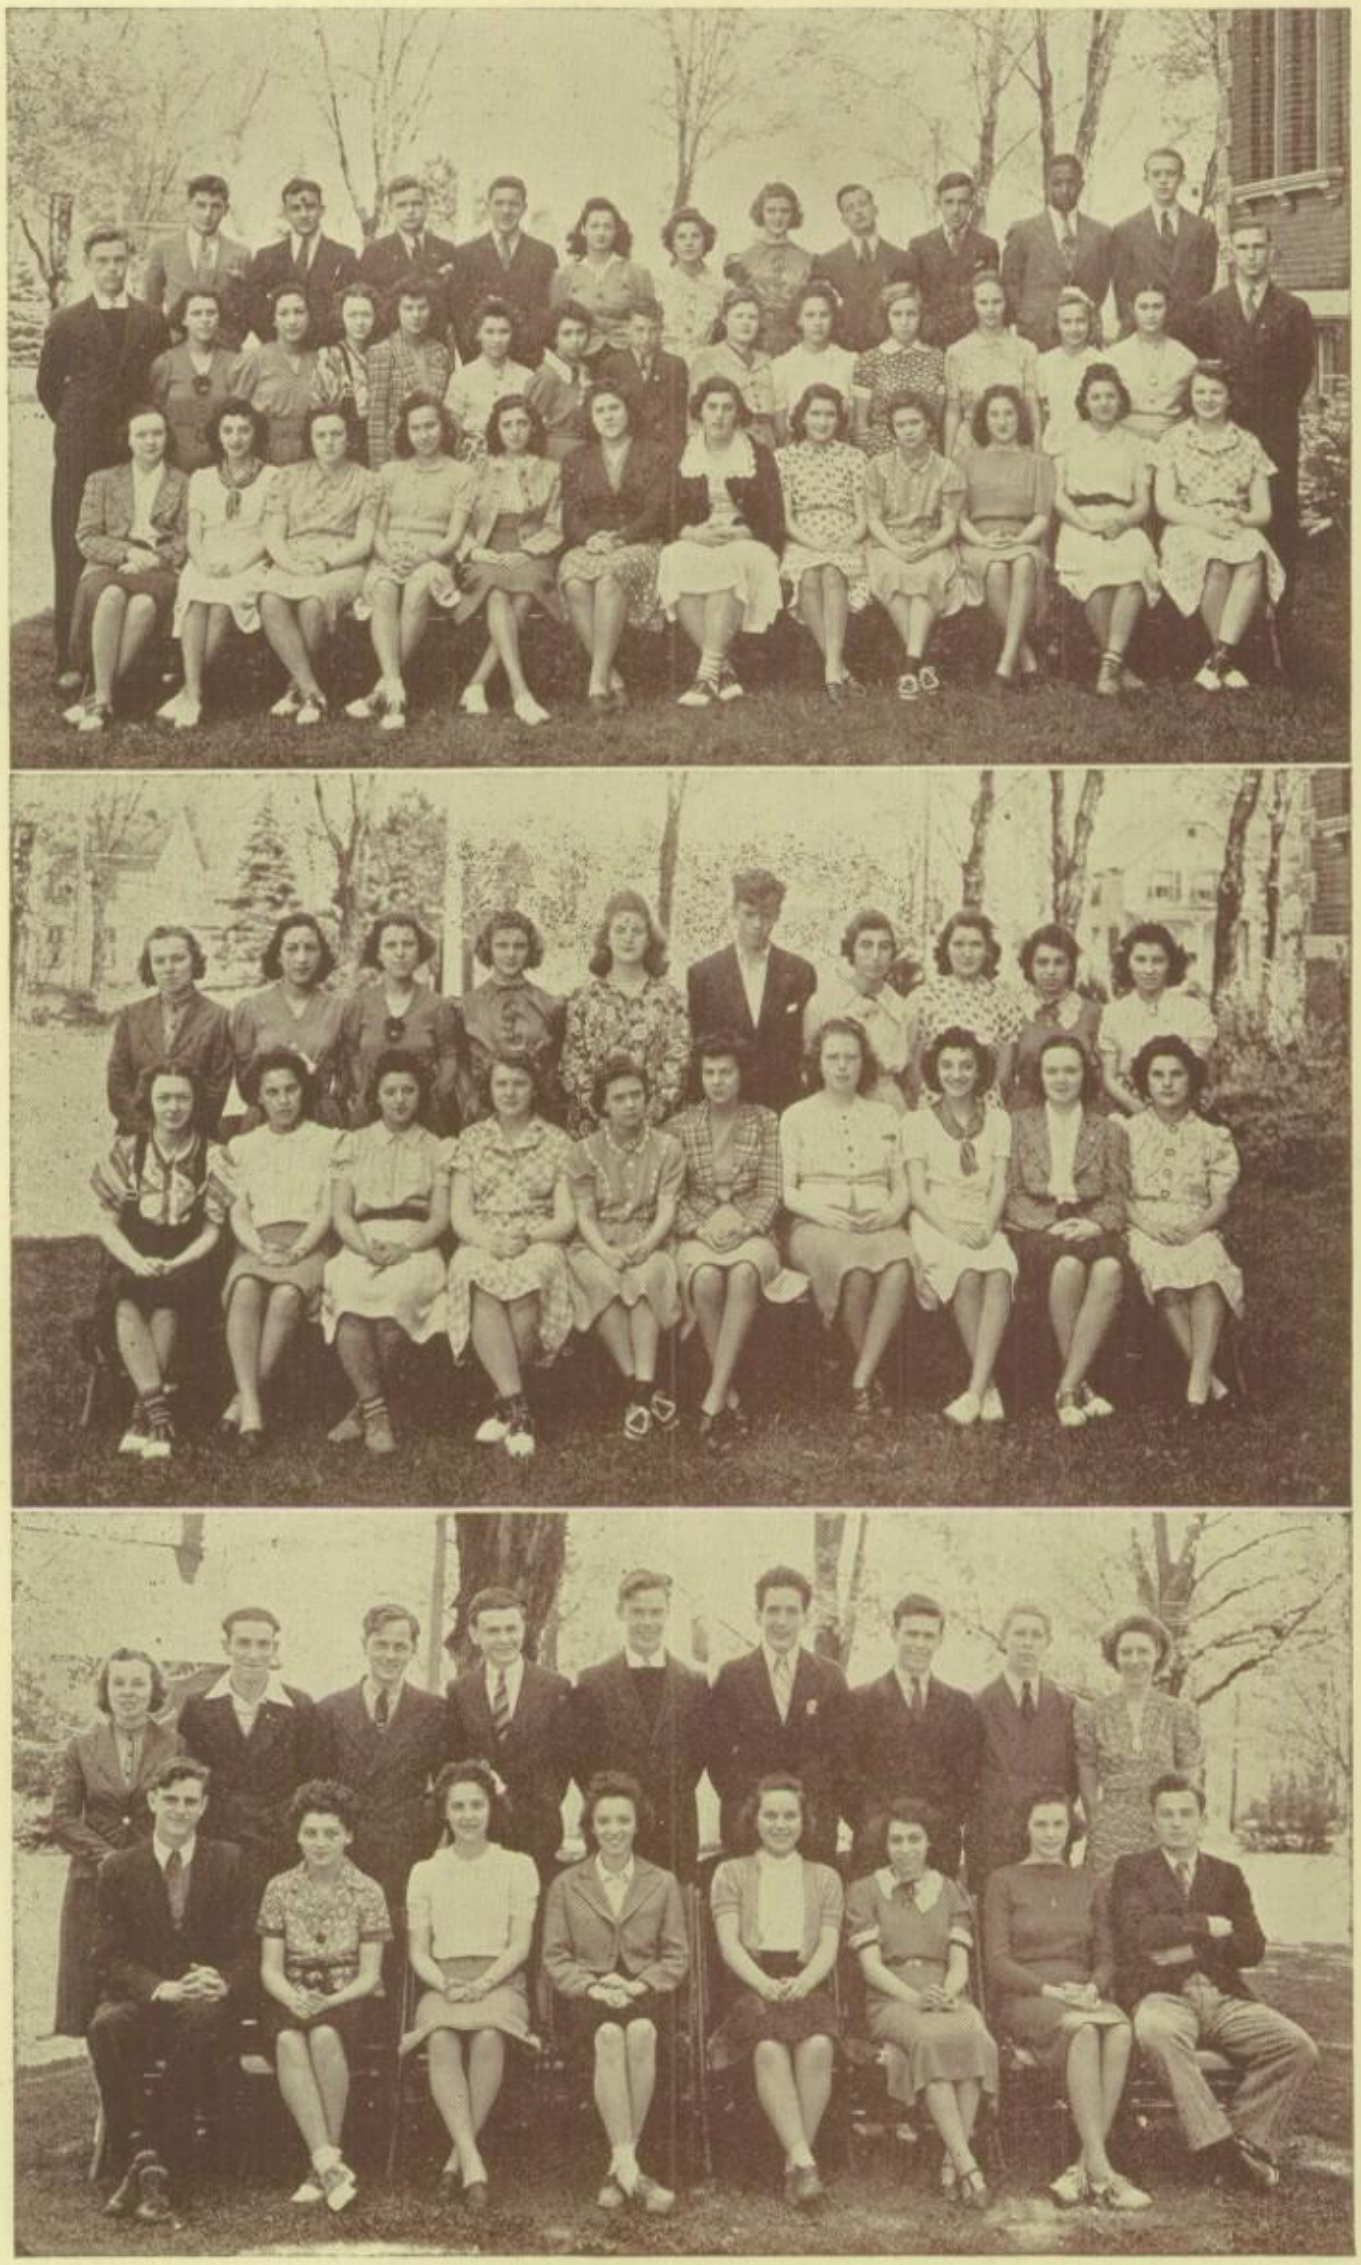
It has been the pleasure of the Glee Club to furnish musical programs at P. T. A., assemblies, Moving Up Day, and community affairs. A Sextette has recently been formed from the members of the Glee Club. This includes: Carmella Conora, Regina Cookingham, and Jane Robbins,-Sopranos; and Jean Gregory, Irene Pietrunti and Jane Van Kempen, Altos. These girls have sung at many social and school events.

Junior Glee Club

The Junior Girls' Glee Club consists of thirty girls, chosen from the 6th, 7th, and 8th grades. These girls, under the direction of Miss Caldwell, receive the fundamental glee club preparation, thus enabling them to join the senior glee club when they are Freshmen in high school.

One appearance was made by the girls in assembly last fall; another one was at the Dutch Reformed Church, where they sang Christmas selections accompanied by trumpets. This performance was followed by Christmas carols in the evening at which the Junior and Senior Glee Clubs were combined. The girls will also sing at grade graduation in June. The officers of our organization include the following girls: President, Cynthia Mitchell; Vice President, Shirley Wilsey; Secretary, Vivian Cumm; Treasurer, Margaret Botts; Librarian, Betty De Flumer.

COEYMANS HIGH



SCHOOL 1939

Dramatic Club

The members of the Dramatic Club, under the direction of Miss Stolzel, have had a very successful season.

Coeymans again participated in a competitive play contest against Coxsackie and Ravena. Coeymans presented a one-act comedy "The Wedding" by John Kirkpatric. The members of the cast proved themselves to be excellent actors and left a lasting impression on the minds of their spectators.

The Dramatic Club is instrumental in developing talent and interest in Dramatics in the high school students.

Honor Club

For the past eight years, Coeymans High School has had an Honor Club. Scholarship is the most important factor in determining membership since on average of above 80% is required. Credits are given for school attendance, athletics, clubs and other extra-curricular activities.

Pins were awarded on Moving Up Day of this year to forty students who qualified by making ten points. The award this year was a very attractive bronze pin.

It has long been considered a high honor and privilege to be a members of this club and it is a goal for which the students work during the year.

Library Club

The Library Club has been organized for many years to assist the librarian in carrying on the work of our school library. The purpose of the club is to teach pupils the use of the library, to foster an appreciation of books and to know how to manage the adminisration of the library.

Under the direction of Miss Eleanor Cleland, the Library Club has done much to improve our library during the past year.

We have been able to add over 100 new books, so that now our total number of volumes is about 1800. In addition to these, 100 books have been borrowed from the State Library.

In May, the Library Club held its annual party for the initiation of the new members who were chosen for their excellence in the administration of the library. This year ten new members were asked to join.

The Library Club members received their pins on Moving-Up Day.
